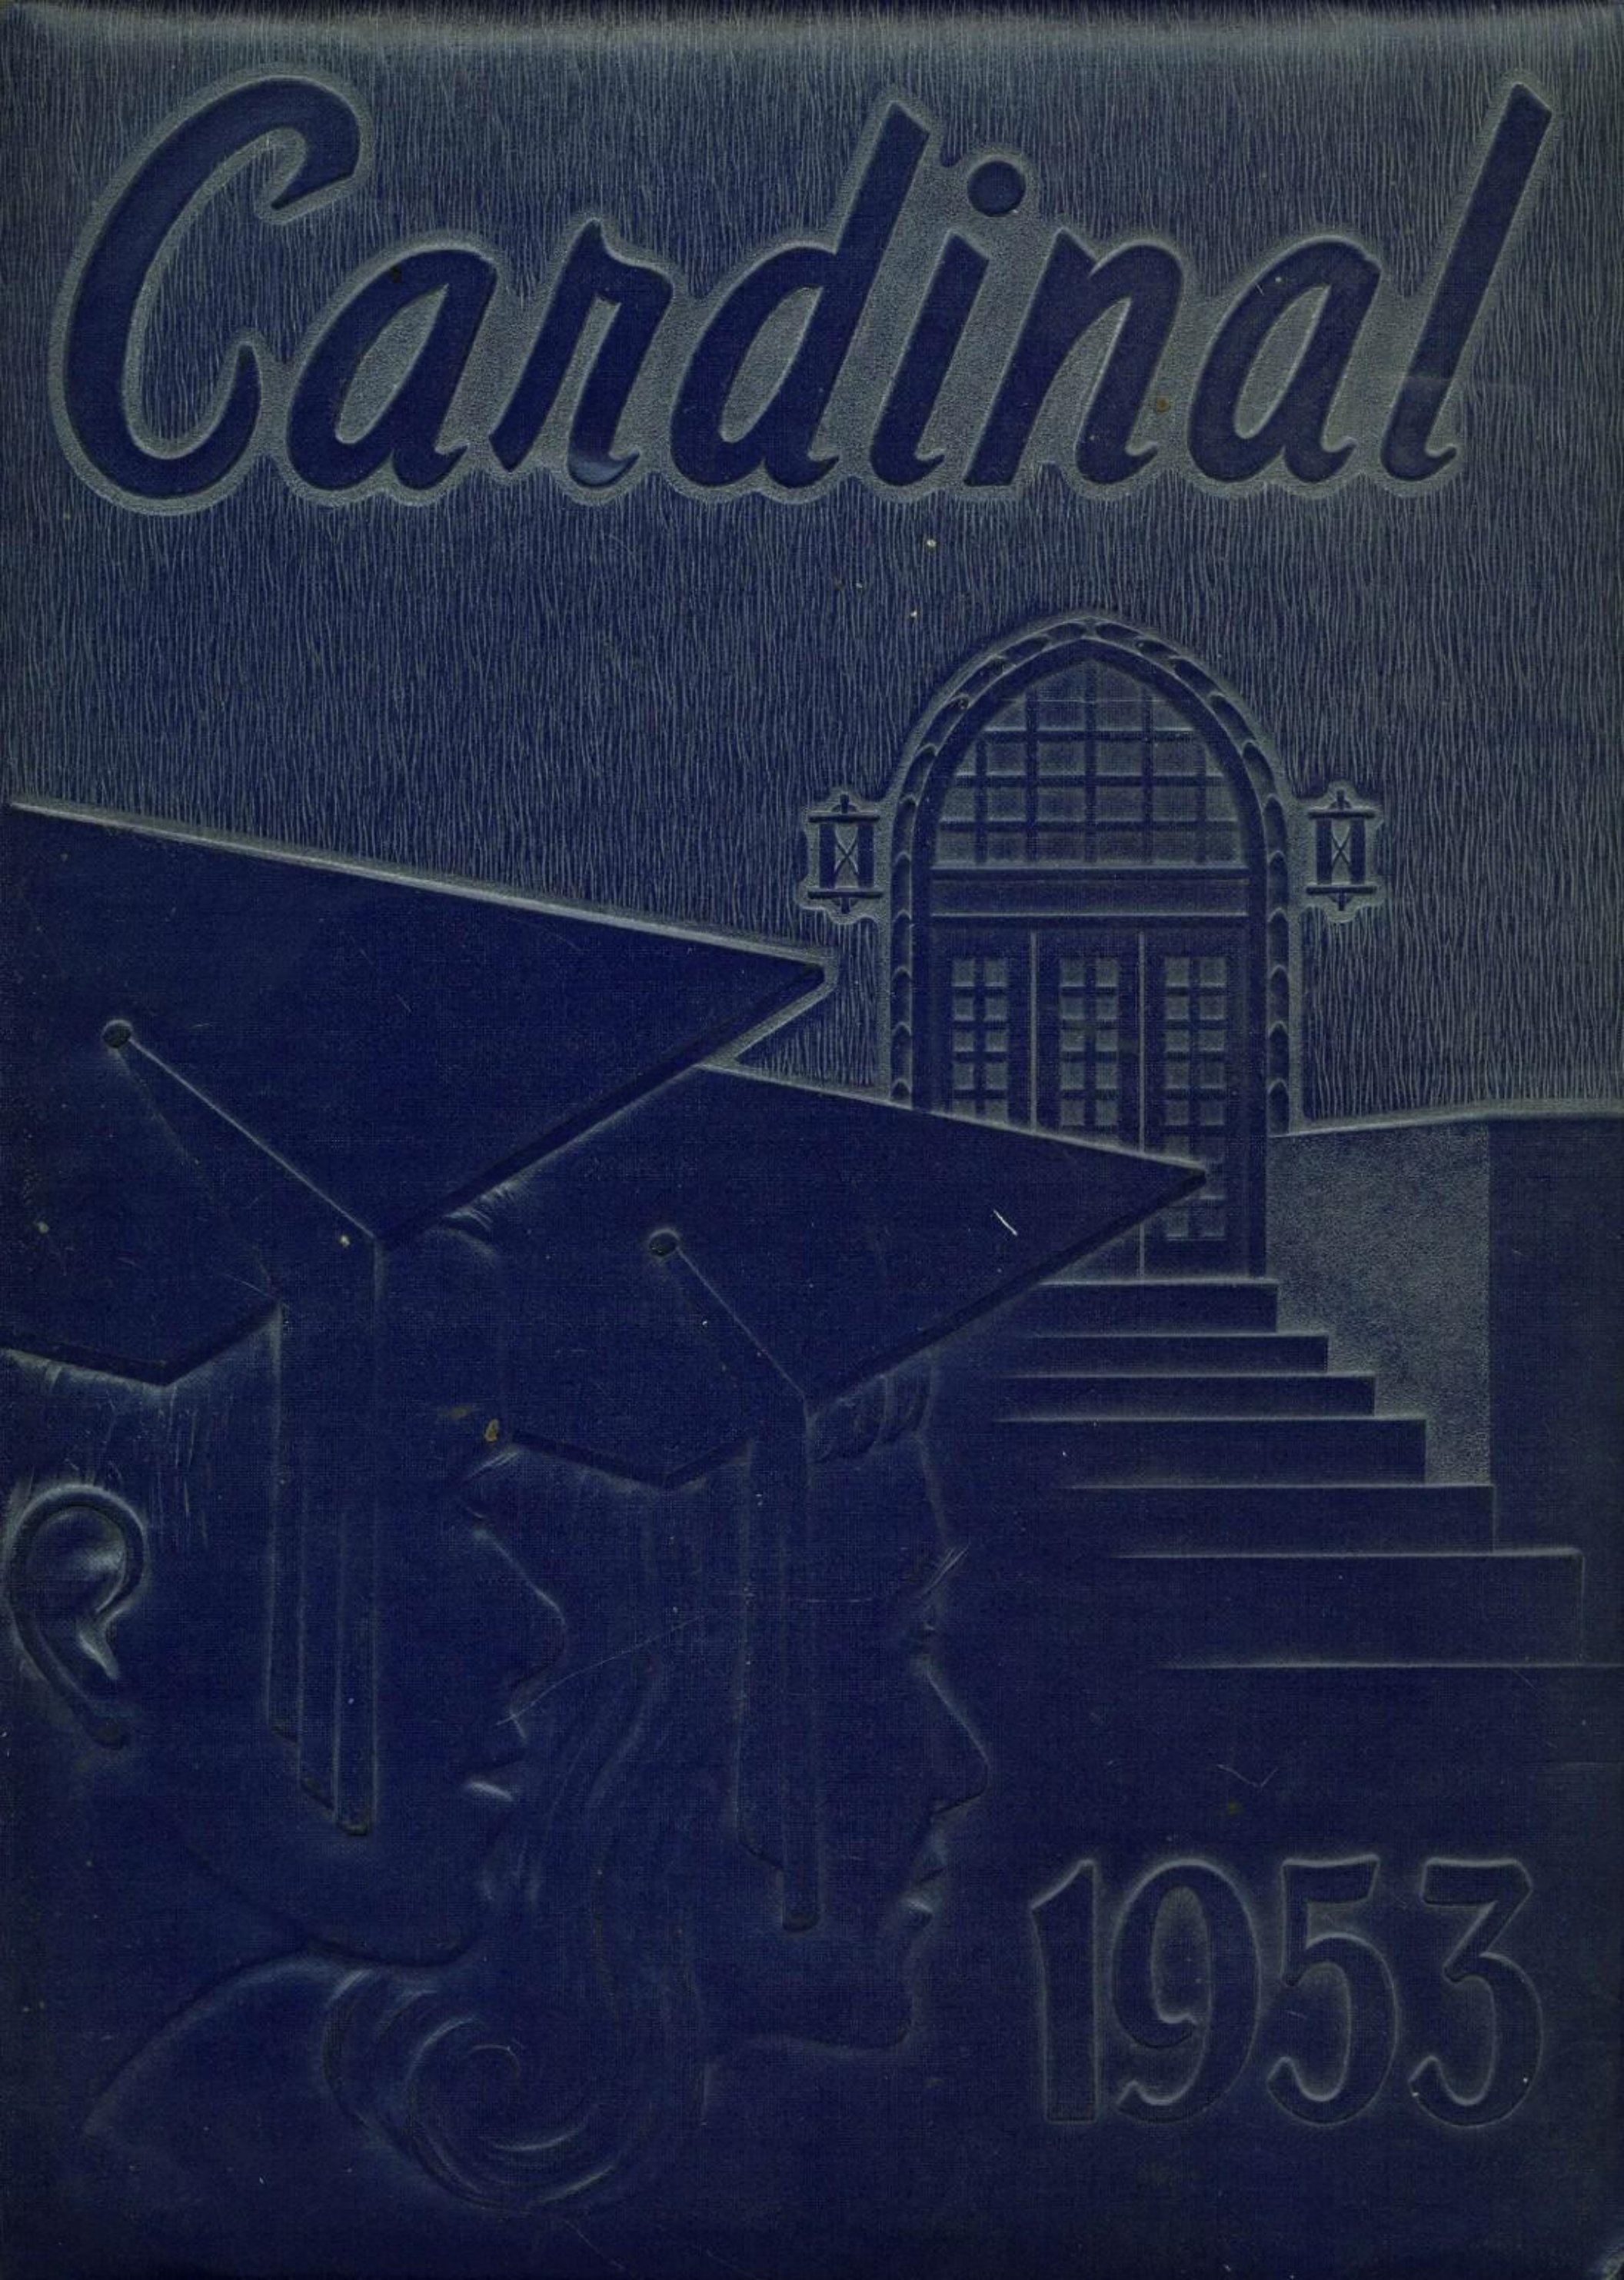
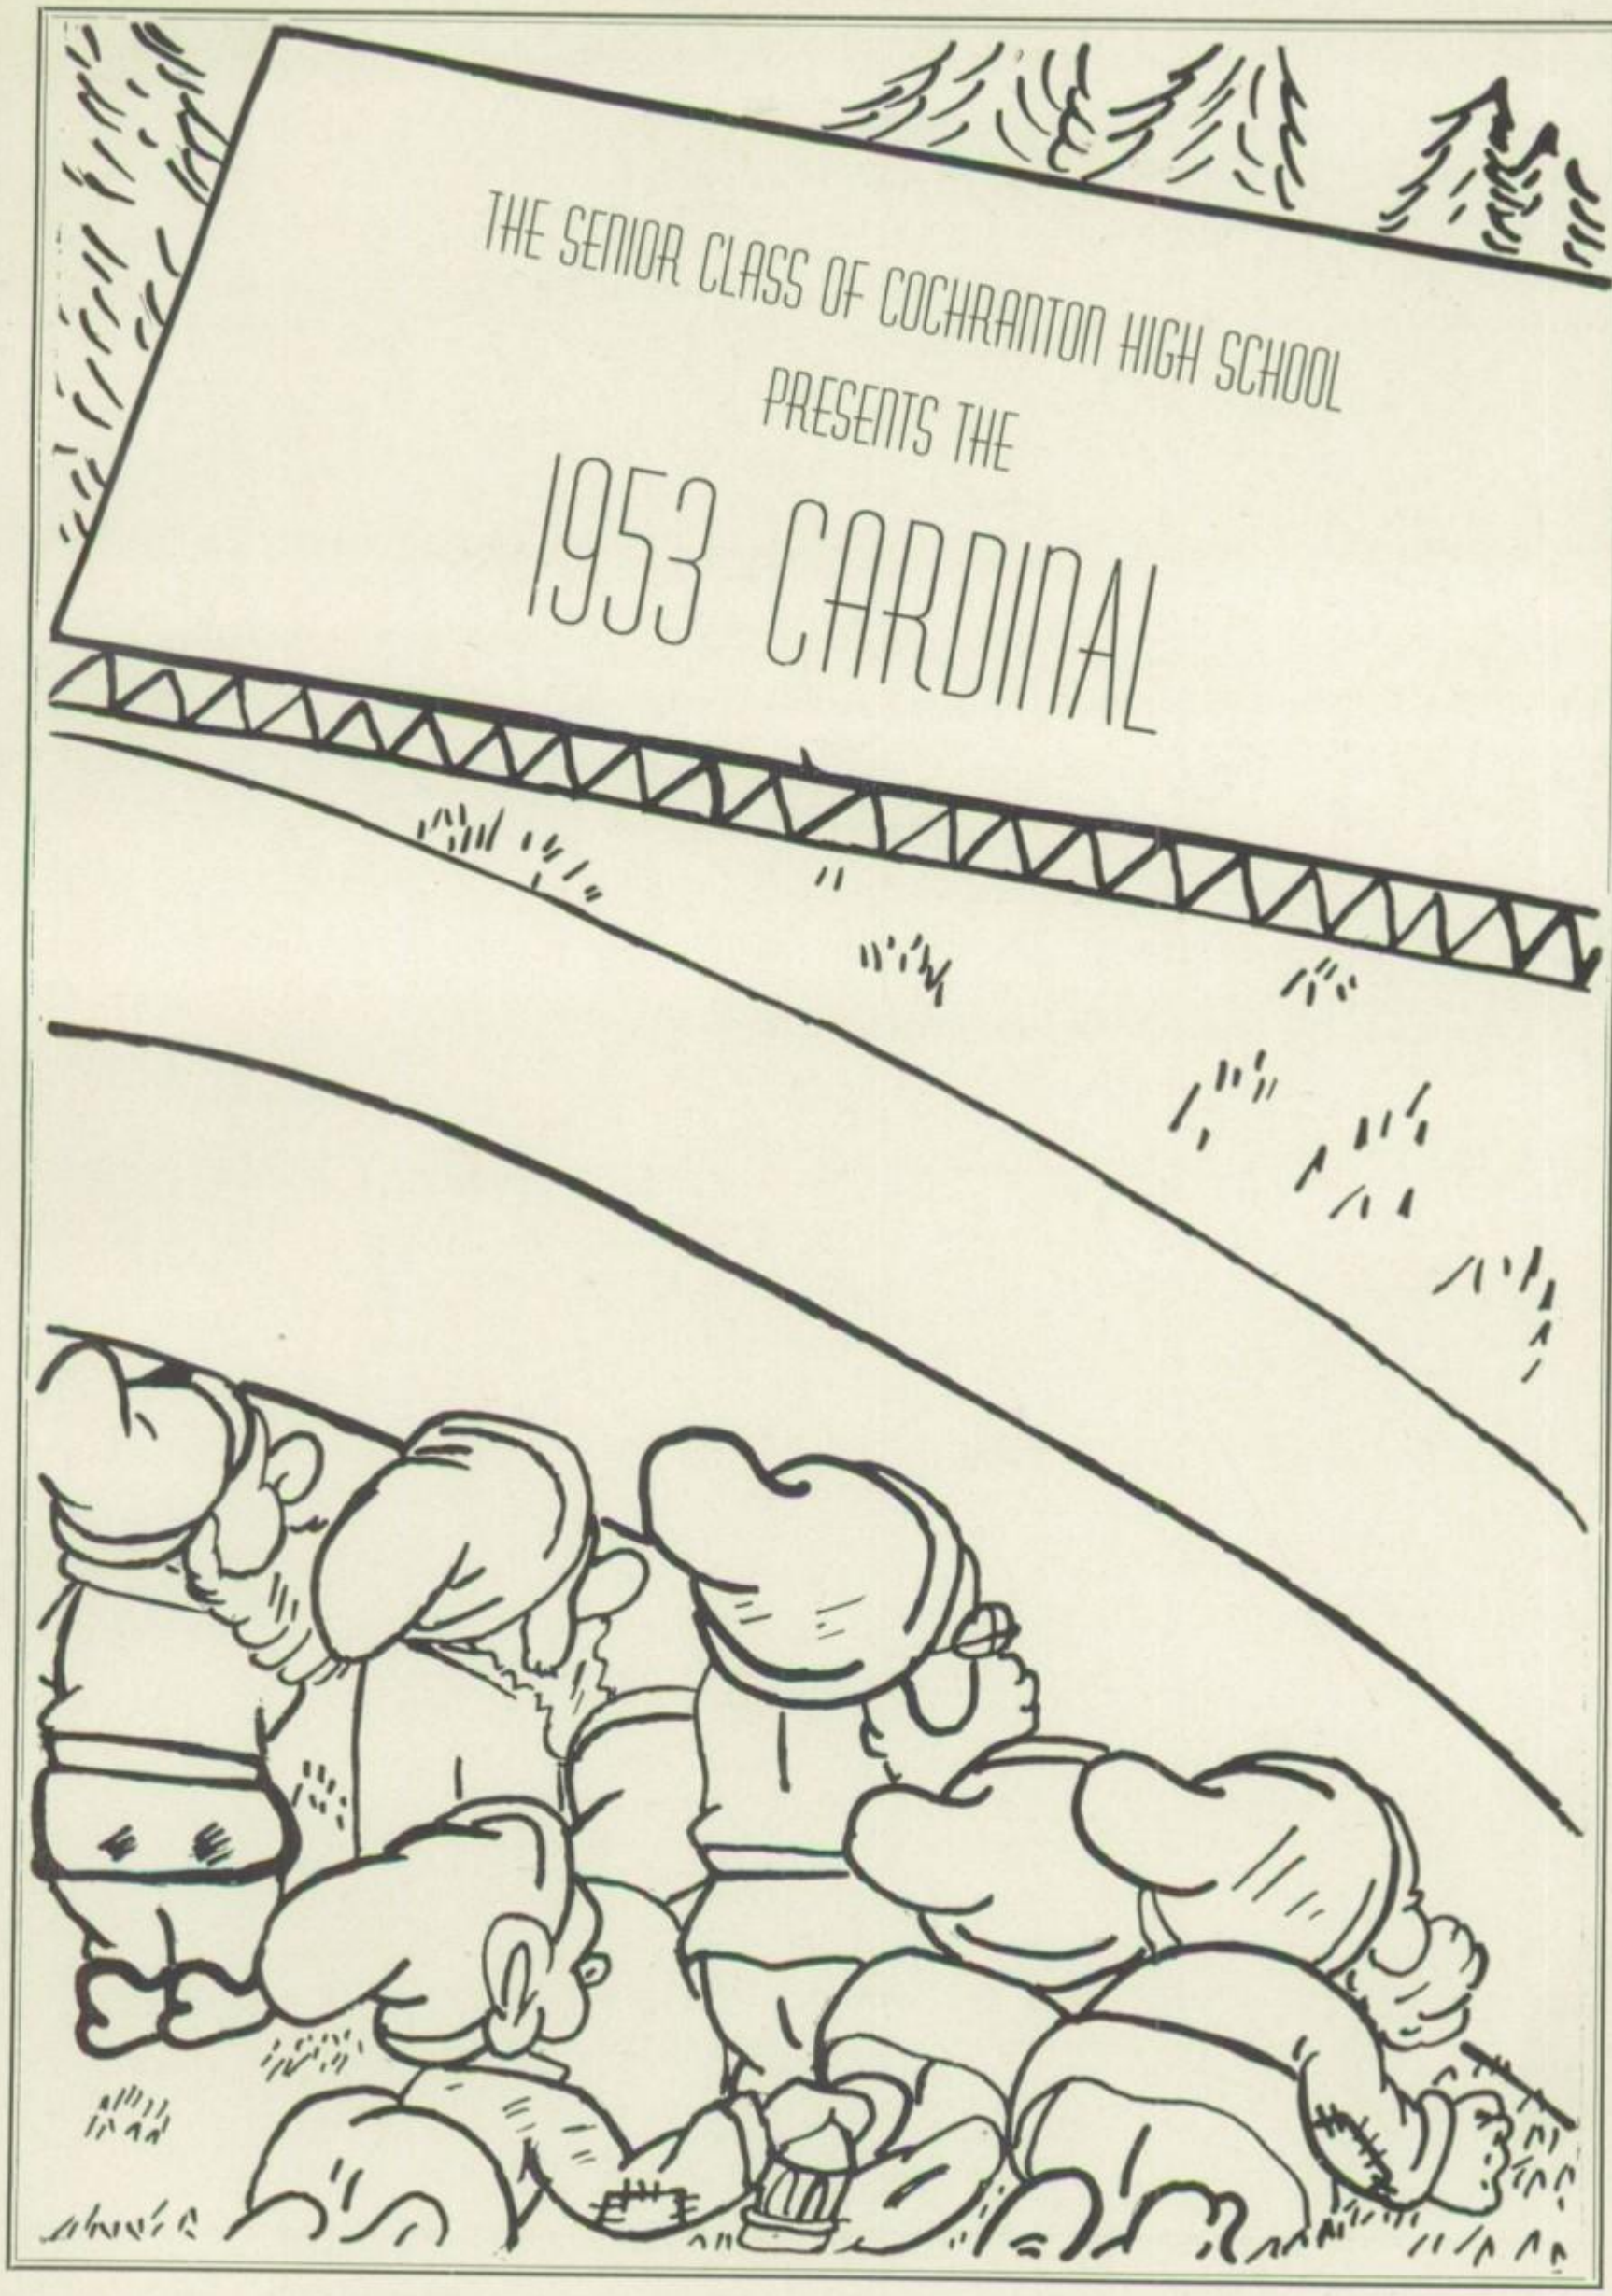
Cardinal



1953



THE SENIOR CLASS OF COCHRANTON HIGH SCHOOL
PRESENTS THE
1953 CARDINAL

FOREWORD

MEET SNOW WHITE folks! She and the seven Dwarfs are going to take you through the '53 Cardinal.

"Doc" is representing the faculty. His prescription for us is Education. "Grumpy" designates the Seniors. We are grumpy because we are leaving. The underclasses are portrayed as "Dopeys". After all, aren't they? Since the activities are the gayer and happier side of our school life, we chose "Happy" to introduce the activity groups. The soft, sweet music of the band and chorus often puts us in a slumber mood, so I think it is only proper to let "Sleepy" conduct us through the music department. Although "Bashful" was chosen for the sports, we are not at all bashful when it comes to scoring high. Even "Sneezy" doesn't believe that the services and quality of merchandise of our advertisers is anything to sneeze at.

We hope that Snow White and the Dwarfs will adequately lead you through the pages of our Cardinal.

DEDICATION

Miss Brock

The worth of an individual is determined by their willingness to consider others before themselves. In this, Miss Brock is an example we should follow, as she always cooperates with other departments in our school. She is especially concerned about her commercial students hoping they will be successful in obtaining positions and filling them in a manner beyond reproach. She does not limit her time to school hours bur sponsors the Tri-Hi-Y, where she teaches the Christian principles necessary for a better way of life.

Mr. Smock

Mr. Smock was chosen because of his ability as a teacher and for his helpfulness to our class. He was one of our home-room teachers during our Junior year and under his leadership, cur class progressed rapidly. For those choosing the academic course, Mr. Smock has guided them very successfully in all types of sciences.

Being Jr. Varsity coach, he has shown us how important team work is. We are truly proud to have chosen you, Mr. Smock, for we feel you are very deserving of this honor.

ADMINISTRATION

CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL BOARD

The Consolidated School Board is composed of members from four different townships: French Creek, Fairfield, East Fairfield, Wayne, and Cochranton Borough. The purpose of the School Board is to make Cochranton a better school for the pupils now and those in the future. Meetings are held once a month to discuss matters pertinent to the school and at present, plans are being acted upon for the future school. We have the Consolidated School Board to thank for their co-operation and laborious efforts put forth to make possible the cafeteria, room additions, and the well-equipped laboratory. At present, the School Board is under the supervision of the President, Robert McCracken, and Secretary, Mrs. Adelaide Roche.

These men all give of their time unselfishly in order that we may have a better school. For all these things it is hard to express in words our heart-felt thanks and we hope the community appreciates their tireless efforts.

PRINCIPALS

MR. MOON

Under the leadership of our supervising principal, Mr. Moon, our school has progressed to great extents. Mr. Moon is a graduate of Mercer High School and Allegheny College. He also did graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh. He is now completing his fourteenth year as supervising principal and is now spending much time working with the architects and the Department of Education in Harrisburg, on the plans for the new Junior-Senior High School. We are proud of the four years he has spent in the service and of his receiving the Honorary Keystone Degree at the Farm Show in Harrisburg. We are grateful for the effort he has put forth to guide and help us.

MR. HELSEL

Mr. Helsel is our high school principal and has been a great help to us. He is our personal and vocational guidance counsellor as well as our public speaking teacher. He is a graduate of Ferndale High School and received his degree at Franklin and Marshall College. We thank him from the bottom of our hearts for the effort he has put forth in making our cafeteria a success. He also has been one of the big boosters in our Parent Teachers Association. He is one of the leaders in the Principals Club of Crawford County, working for better schools.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year of 1973. The alumni of "53" are meeting in the Ritz Club for a class reunion dinner. Nancy Dean, the proprietor will serve as hostess.

Reverend Carl McDermott will return thanks. He is seated next to the famous lecturer, Ken Mears, who will be the main speaker this evening.

Planning the menu for this lovely dinner were the dieticians, Thelma Robertson and Bertha Stallsmith.

Seated at one table we see that outstanding chef of the school cafeteria, Bill Williams, (likes his own food too)! Also at this table are a group of muscle bound wrestlers, Earl Turner, John Thompson, Ronald Swogger and Wayne Peterson. There is their manager, Wayne McFetridge and he's flashing a brand new pair of false teeth.

At the next table is another wrestling team. Elizabeth Legnosky, Lucille Maurice, Jane Whitman and Margaret Deeter, who are to compete in the world Finals.

We find a group of professional basketball athletes present, the "Hot-Shots," Bruce Babbitt, Dick Bernarding, Dick Beers, Ed Corner, Sheldon Szitas, and Mike Nagel. They have just returned from a tour of the country under the management of Leonard (Bubby) Elliott.

At this time we are favored with a solo by the great opera star, Beverly Helsel.

Also for entertainment we have those lovely chorus girls' Virginia Hart, Peggy Free, Shirley McKinney, Ruth Andrews, Violet Cvancara, Wilma Fetterolf, and Peg Bean.

The next act will be those "gone be-boppers", Carol Hamilton, Sharlene Braymer, and Evelyn Fejes, giving us their arrangement of the "Mad Cats Jump."

And now, making her first home town appearance is America's favorite T.V. personality, Donna Armour, star of "My Friend Donna." With her is Peggy Windschmitt, her wardrobe designer

At the table to the left we are glad to see Mary Ellen Walker, a writer, who has just returned from Europe on a T.W.A. plane. Gaylord DuPont and Tom Voorhies piloted the plane, and the hostesses were Verlamae Gravatt and Sue Gill.

Also returning from a European vacation were the New York models, Jane Burchill, Helen Burnette, Helen Arbuckle, and Claire Bauer.

At another table we have John Beightol, Paul Chatley, Dick Galmish, Clarence Tarr, and Charles Rankin, who hold important positions in the U.S Agricultural Department. Seated with them is the Governor's secretary, Joyce Shay.

Manager of the new chemical plant in Cochranton, Bill Martin, is here with his assistants, Bob Morrison and Jerry Hart.

Next to them are the operators of the School of Charm in Hollywood, Pat Forney, Pat Wilson, Pat Ferrier, and Adda Buchanan. With them is the famed commercial artist, Jean Rounds.

John Jackson, editor of the Cochranton Times, is here getting a story and some pictures with his photographer, Ruth Hart.

Peggy Peterson and Cora Peterson are operating the Child Nursery. They are speaking with Dr. Myron Walker, who s a prominent pediatrician.

Sitting beside the window are Betty Lou Pearce and Ruth Gehres, both registered Army nurses.

Remember the Romeos, Lyle Arbuckle and Bill Murdoch? They have both become successful Shakespearian actors. They are also attending the dinner.

Seated next to them are Louise Elliott, Mary Scully and Wanda Clark, all very happily married.

Nearing the end of our tour of the graduates of '53, we find smiling Peggy Tidball, the local undertaker. She's speaking with Mrs. Smith, (Mrs. America of 1970) and Grandpa Cook.

So good friends, thus ends the Prophecy for the class of 1953.

J is for the Junior-Senior Banquet, the biggest event of the year, for both Juniors and Seniors. It was followed by a prom held in the beautifully decorated gymnasium.

U is for the unusual play, "Glamour Boy," that was presented by the Junior Class this year. It was the first Junior Class play that has been held for over ten years.

N is for the many nice times we had together during our Junior year, starting it off by working together and planning and displaying a winning float—a float with a worthy cause behind it, the urgent need for blood.

I is for the interest shown by all the class members in the March of Dimes campaign held this year. The Junior Class contributed over $70 to this fund for the fight against polio.

O is for the many other activities sponsored by the Juniors this year

R is for those delicious red-hot hot dogs which the Junior Class sold at every basketball game on the home court. Girls and boys alike worked hard to make this project a success.

C is for the wonderful class spirit. The pride of being part of the Junior Class was really illustrated by the wonderful cooperation on the part of everyone.

L is for the large attendance at the annual Hallowe'en Dance sponsored by the Juniors. The gym was cleverly decorated for the event and a mystery movie was an added attraction.

A is for our wonderful advisors: Miss Brock, Mr. Gibbons, Mr. Smock and Mr. McCullough worked so diligently to make this year a happy and successful one. They might never realize how their help and understanding was appreciated.

S is for two of the gayest semesters our class has ever known.

S again is for the Senior Class next year. We are looking forward to our last year at "dear old" C. H. S. with great interest and many hopes for what our last year may bring.

Put them all together, they spell Junior Class, a class of which we can be proud.

It was the year of 2075. The sun was setting on Saturn. Ouch! Space veterans Clark, Jones, and Bartowski were on their way to Pluto in their space ship, "S. S. Ironsides."

They were thinking of their favorite class, the "Little Genius" Sophomores of 2055.

They turned on their videograms and saw the Female Johnie Ray (Carolyn Gieger) accompanied by the Four Lads: Anna Mae Johnson, Gladys Corner Peggy Beringer, and Treva Cotterman. They're selling bottled tears and making a fortune.

Next came the three great pioneer stars of smellovision, Kenny Osborne, a prize fighter; Lois Scott, a Powers model; and Herman Staudt, the tough guy in Cineroma.

Bill McCullough and Bob McIntyre are making a fortune blowing hydro-chlorophyllic soap bubbles for space bubble dancers.

Sherry Petrovitch, Dick Burchill, Evelyn Dennis, and Sheldy Crawford are simply out of this world. They're on Mercury discs.

Cliff Robinson and Alan Peters are on their way to stardom in their hot rod rocket. But now they're being overtaken by Jim Peterson and Lee Bennett, of the Royal Sad Sacks. They arrested Cliff and Alan for going over 580 miles per degree.

Here they come! There they go. Carol Dunn, Sandy Wilkens, and Harriet Morrison, the Unmerciful Trio.

They've just met up with Bud Chess, the Valentino of the twenty-first century. Just look at Sue Jewell and Alberta Griffin go into a supersonic daze. Oh, and there is Jeanette Thueret, the Rendezvous singer.

Larry Silloway, LaVerne McMasters, John Taylor, Bob Myers, and Williard Taylor are the Frank Buckoo space hunters. They capture Venusian specimens aided by Nick Petruna's most glorified invention, the can opener.

Mary Bond and Beulah Peterson are the two beautiful sopranos with the contralto voice.

Well! Well! Beverly Rankin and Ruth Allen finally caught the cow that jumped over the moon. They are milking it now.

Atlas (Mike Offensend) himself is on the screen. Look who's guarding him! Spacewomen Ruth Gedeon, Gerry Smoley, Janet Kuhn and Carol Moore.

There come the most popular cooks of smellovision John Bean, Audrey Hines, Audrey Jackson, and Ellen Bell. They have been brewing something for Clint Brown who has space fever.

The contest for the title, Miss Universe of Outer Space, is over and Marilyn Oakes and Virginia Perrine tied for the first place.

And there's Larry George and Roger Stallsmith. They invented the cow that gave chocolate milk. John Williams and Bill Francisco invented the chicken that laid hard-boiled eggs.

The newscast is on and there is something—Oh! Yes! Poor Peggy Hollobaugh and Rose Andrews are lost. They were so brave. Too bad they had to pick on Saturn's rings to shoot up.

All the other members of the class are married and have families. Their names are too numerous to mention, but we owe them a lot. They're all part of the wonderful Sophomores of 2055.

IN MEMORIUM

We, the Senior Class of 1953, pause in this hour of our achievements to remember those who might have been sharing these honors with us, had not misfortune befallen them.

It was in our freshman year that Richard Arensburg fell out of a tree and was killed. Although he was a new member to most of the class, his loss was felt by all.

David McWilliams quit schcol at the end of his sophomore year but when he was fatally injured in an automobile accident this year, we felt that he was one of our group.

May both of these, our former classmates, be with us in spirit although they are no longer here in body.

The Senior F.H.A. has had a very active year with a much enlarged membership. The girls prepared a display for the Poultryman's Association for the Crawford County Fair, showing different ways of serving chicken attractively. Next came the Community Fair with the vocational students assisting with the entering, arranging and judging the exhibits. In October the F.F.A. chose Jean Rounds as their candidate for the title of Queen of the Northwest District Livestock Association and presented her with a "sweetheart" jacket. Jean took part in the parade, coronation ceremonies, and a television show at Erie.

Thelma Robertson, chairman of Region A, F.H.A., took part with other state and regional officers in a telecast from Erie. Later she presided at the regional meeting held at Butler. A large delegation attended from the local chapter. A Halloween party was held in October. In December the girls entertained the F.H.A. at a lovely Christmas party.

Ten members attended the Farm Show at Harrisburg, where Jean Rounds, Thelma Robertson Verlamae Gravatt, and Bertha Stallsmith presented a demonstration "The Electric Blender." This demonstration was repeated on the television program "Housewives' Matinee" from Erie. A box social was held in March. Money for these activities was raised by serving at the Eastern States Co-Operative Association meeting, and by a bake sale, movie, and the sale of home-made Christmas cookies.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y of '52 and '53 had a membership of forty girls.

We started the year by appointing standing committees which were to plan and conduct our activities throughout the year. An executive committee was formed by the officers and committee chairmen. The duties of this committee were to oversee all club activities and thoroughly discuss all important business.

Activities undertaken to raise needed funds were a taffy sale, two bake sales, and the sponsoring of a film for the school.

One of the main purposes for wanting to increase our treasury was to send a delegate from our club to the United Nations Conference at Harrisburg. In order to be able to participate in this conference, you were required to write a theme on the United Nations. Four themes were submitted. A committee of three teachers was formed to choose the best theme. Sylvia Anderson was selected as our delegate. Liz Unger was chosen as an alternate.

A North West District meeting was held at Allegheny College in the form of a "mock" United Nations Conference. Sylvia Anderson, Liz Unger, Miss Brock, and eight other members attended this meeting. While there, twelve alternates were voted on to accompany the delegates to Harrisburg. Liz Unger was one of the alternates selected and her proposal was chosen to be used at the Harrisburg conference. Miss Brock was invited to be a chaperone. From the reports that were brought back, we have decided it was a most wonderful experience.

In order to show appreciation to our mothers, our annual Mother and Daughter Banquet was held at the end of the year.

At a meeting in Linesville, Mary Lee Vaughn was elected Vice President of the Northwest District. It was the first time such an honor was bestowed upon our club. We were very proud of Mary Lee's particapation in the district's activities.

The most outstanding and worthwhile activity of our club was the packing and distribution of Christmas Baskets to the needy families in the Cochranton area.

Our meetings throughout the year were held every other Monday evening at the high school. Two of the most unusual progams were a talk by Mrs. Jane Ballantyne on the display work she and her husband are doing with their original dolls and a demonstration on hair care and styling by Mrs. Marge Schreck.

To finish our club year, we took a week end trip to Canadota Lake. A most wonderful time was experienced by all the Tri-Hi-Y girls. It was the perfect ending for a wonderful club experience closing a most profitable year.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Our F.F.A. is still farming the 150 acre farm we rented from Mrs. Elizabeth Stockton. The farm was in pasture and hay this year.

Eleven acres of land was rented from Mr. McCullough and planted to Clinton fifty-nine oats. 550 bushel of oats were harvested from this project and certified by the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association. We also planted eighteen acres of corn on the land where the new school is to be built. This proved to be successful when the corn was sold at a profit. 1800 bales of clover and timothy hay were harvested off the F.F.A. farm.

The F.F.A. raised eighteen head of fattening steers which had been bought in Maryland in October 1951. These steers were kept in the F.F.A. barn during the winter and then put out on pasture during the summer. The first of August the steers were put in the feed lot and were given all the grain they would eat. Many of the members also had individual steer projects. All the steers were taken to the Northwestern Pennsylvania Livestock Association show and sale, which was held on October 22 and 23 at the Crawford County Fair Grounds. Cochranton F.F.A. boys had many ribbon winning steers.

The F.F.A. boys found beef raising an interesting project so many of them are starting heifer projects so they can raise their own cattle to sell. Steers and heifers for the beef raising projects were bought at Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, and Friendsville, Maryland.

On June 10 three members went to State College for F.F.A. Week. Daniel Clark was selected as the State Sentinel at this meeting.

In December we entered our project books in the County contest and our books took third place among the county schools. The winning books were then entered in the state contest where we had two gold and two silver medal winners.

On January 12 eight of our members went to the State Farm Show at Harrisburg. All the boys reported having a good time.

We have been busy all this year selling Christmas cards, garden seeds and onion plants. Several boys have sold $100 of these together, and will receive F.F.A. jackets for doing so.

The F.F.A. is having another chick project this year. We are getting 250 chicks March 2 and are entering part of them in the Chicken of Tomorrow Contest. They will be sold when they are twelve weeks old.

The boys have several different shop projects started which will keep them busy the rest of the school year.

We, all the F.F.A. members and instructors, feel that this has been a good and profitable year. We hope through the efforts of every member that next year will be even better.

The Editor is general overseer of the Yearbook It is her duty to write the Forward and Dedication. The Editor is also responsible for assembling Senior and Faculty information. The Assistant Editor must be ready to help with any job the Editor can't cope with. He must be on the alert to learn all he can about producing a book so he will be ready for service as an Editor the next year. The main duty of the assistant Editor is to contact and prepare all printed material for the Activities section.

The Art Editor is responsible for the drawings used on the division title pages. She is also responsible for the printed material and pictures for the underclasses.

The Music Editor is under the supervision of Mrs. Inglefield. She must consult her as to what she wishes to have and then the Music Editor must prepare the material.

The Sports Editor must consult both Mrs. Clark and Mr. Cook for the contents of this section. Once this is done, he must mount the pictures and prepare this material.

The sole duty of the Typists is to decode and type the mass of material for the book.

As the title infers, the Subscriptions Editor is in charge of the drive for subscriptions. She must keep accounts and payments in record.

The Business Manager has a big job and a responsible one. She has to keep accounts of the advertisers who have paid and must keep complete dummy sheets. She is also in charge of collecting and handling the money from classes, clubs, and must deposit in the office.

As you can see, each of us has a job and an important one. Mrs. Clark is our advisor and she keeps each of us "on-the-ball." Actually, she is responsible for meeting all the "deadlines" and seeing to it that the book has continuity. Not even she has a soft job.

ROD AND RIFLE CLUB

The Rod and Rifle Club is opened to both junior and senior high school students. Probably this accounts for its large membership. Sixty-five students make up its total membership which is divided into two groups. Mr. Cook and Mr. Helsel are our advisors.

Each group has elected officers who keep minutes of each meeting, collect dues and carry on the business of the club. Officers are as follows:

Group one: President — Richard Chenoweth
Vice President — Richard Clark
Secretary — Robert Dickson
Treasurer — Lee Armour

Group two: President — William Hovis
Vice President — Blair Hood
Secretary — Ronald Stallsmith
Treasurer — William McQuiston

Early in the season the members decided to purchase emblems for each member. After considering several designs, we decided on a red and white keystone shaped emblem bearing the inscription, C. H. S. Rod and Gun Club. A rod and rifle are pictured on either side of the emblem.

Our programs consist of slides, movies, field trips, fly tying demonstrations, discussions on outdoor life and conservation.

The club sopnsored a program for the school on March 17. Mr. Robert Palderman of the Pennsylvania Game Commission talked on conservation and showed a movie on wild iife.

The most important project of the year is an all day field trip. This is taken the last week of school and of course everyone is anxiously awaiting this opportunity to get out in the open and rough it for a day.

Our program for fall and winter months centered around hunting. But with April 15 just around the corner all of the boys are fixing up their fishing tackle in anticipation of landing a prized beauty.

A new club was organized this year. It was a social club and a club for interested students to learn the steps of dancing. The members were divided into two groups; dancers and non-dancers. The dancers taught the non-dancers steps of "Two Step", "Charleston," and the "Jitterbug."

The 67 members danced to the records purchased by the club. They also enjoyed the orchestra versions of Mr. Brannon and Jerry Thomas.

Lois Beers and Beverly Helsel brought back the dance called "Goofies." The dance consists of two people. It is on the order of the "Charleston," and the "Jitterbug," but without a doubt is a dance of its own.

The club is planning a dance sometime in April

The Senior Class was proud of the fine presentation of their play, "Calling All Carrs." It seems as though it centered about the rich uncle Caleb Carr, Sheldon Szitas, and his family. His favorite neice. Penny, Betty Pearce, fell in love with Dr. Ted, John Jackson. Their romance was interrupted time after time by Dr. Ted's girl friend Madelyn Carr, Beverly Helsel. Peggy Windschmitt as Arabella and Elizabeth Legnosky as Butterfly, added to the humerous part of the play. Especially Butterfly's "garter bank" and Arabella's sneezing. Through a misunderstanding, the Carr family through their rich uncle Caleb was buried at sea, and all were anxious to get his money. But as his will was being read, he appeared with a nurse Flossie, Wanda Clark, his wife to be, and a stuttering secretary Ira Hooper, Ed Corner. When the family realized he was getting married instead of buried, they all were jealous of Flossie. Especially sweet and cunning Constance, Claire Bauer, the mother of Madelyn and dignified Henry, Bill Williams, and his sobbing wife Elta, Sharlene Braymer. Their son Orval, Tom Voorhies,was in love with Penny, but it was useless, for in the end, Penny and Dr. Ted found they were really meant for each other.

The prompters were Ada Buchannan and Peggy Free who did a splendid job.

Ed Corner accompanied by Ed Hildebran and Dick Beers, Donna Armour, Jane Burchilll, and Leonard Elliott accompanied by Mary Ellen Walker provided entertainment between the acts.

Glamour Boy was a very clever comedy written by a former teacher, Esther E. Olson. The scenes of the play all take place in the office of the Oakville High School principal, Mr. Garfield. The story centers about Chauncey, a bashful, unathletic, school boy.

The school was about to be given a new swimming pool by J. C. Roberts, a wealthy business man, when Miss Prescott insisted Chauncey write an autobiography. Chauncey knew he couldn't write one because nothing in his life was worth writing about. Miss Davis, the principal's secretary, who was a friend of all, asked Chauncey to write something. Mr. Garfield made Chauncey sit in the office until he wrote the autobiography.

While Chauncey was thinking, Miss Higgins, another teacher, Clarissa Green, Georgia Bell Roberts, Flash Horner, Corky Williams, Roxanne Towner, Audrey Nelson, and Sue Allen were running in and out of the office ignoring him. Finally Chauncey decided what to write.

The remainder of the play involves an N.B.C. announcer, a "Life "photographer, a New York student's magazine writer and Chauncey's mother. Oakville High got their swimming pool, thanks to Chauncey.

Directors were Mr. Gibbons and Mr. Smock. Business Manager was Miss Brock.

BAND

The Cochranton High School Band is composed of 55 members, under the direction of Mrs. Inglefield. The Band is made up largely of Juniors and Seniors.

Among the numerous activities in which we undertook this year, the one we enjoyed most was the combined concert with Lawrence Park Band, under the direction of Mr. Howard Schoolkin. The Lawrence Park band journeyed to Cochranton on November 24. Rehearsal was held all morning and in the afternoon a preview of the evening's program was given to the student body. The guest band featured a talented pianist, Bob Blanchfield, along with a choral group who called themselves the Stylettes. The following day Cochranton travelled to Lawrence Park where the same program was given.

The band also played at the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

It was represented by the following people at the District Band Festival held in Warren: Jane Burchill, David Pete, David Dunn, Norma Moore, Beverly Helsel, Marilyn McDaniel, and Betty Pearce. The guest conductor, Mr. Dunlap, from Penn State gave an excellent concert.

From this group of representatives, David Pete was chosen to represent Cochranton at State Band. This was held at Penn State College.

The Band will end its activities this year by playing at the commencement exercises.

SENIOR CHORUS

This year our Senior Chorus was composed of 60 members, the largest music organization in Cochranton High School. Twenty-two of these are seniors who have been with the organization three years.

By far the largest project for the year was the production of the Operetta, "Coral Island." Our activities also included the Christmas Concert, which was a beautiful spectacle. The Senior Chorus began its part in the program with the traditional candle light procession after which were sung Christmas selections. The program was brought to a close with the singing of Silent Night.

This was followed by the Spring Concert. Selections for this event were some that we had sung at District Chorus.

Twelve of our membership were chosen to represent Cochranton High School at District Chorus Festival. They all had a good time. Practice sessions were held every morning, afternoon, and evening. The second evening of their stay Wesleyville High School entertained all the representatives by sponsoring a dance. The festival was brought to a close with an evening concert that they had all practiced so hard for. They said good-bye to the the friends they had made and returned home bringing with them all they had learned in rehearsals.

The Chorus gave its farewell performance at Baccalaureate service. This was both a happy and sad occasion. We were happy to sing for our parents and friends but sad at the prospect that this would be the last time we would be together as a choral group.

JUNIOR CHORUS

First row: M. McFarland, E. Martin, J. George, B. Hedglin, K. DeVenney, P. Wood, C. Buchanan, B. Bauer, R. Porter, L. Armour R. Gehres, D. Hunt, J. Pete, J. Peterson, G. Graham, K. The Junior Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Inglefield has a membership of forty-five. It is composed of students from the eighth and ninth grades. This year they made their first appearance in the Christmas Concert. They sang a variety of Christmas numbers featuring Catherine DeVinney and Patty Woods as soloists.

They also appeared in the Spring Concert, singing several numbers. The chorus as a whole was very good this year.

The pianist for the Chorus is Beatrice Clark. She also was an accompanist for the operetta, Coral Island. Members of the future Senior Chorus are chosen from this group.

As this year book goes to press our operetta is being staged. This year Mrs. Inglefield wrote the complete operetta for us. This means that we are the original cast and the first to present it to the the public. Mr. Helsel is directing the speech and stage actions.

The locale of "Coral Island" is a beautiful island in the South Pacific. Our dances are south sea island dances and native drummers sound the rhythm. Donna Armour, a native dancer, sings an island love song and dances to its swaying rhythm.

The leading soloists, Elaine Carter and Greg Gibbons are Americans visiting the island. Beverly Helsel and Dick Beers very ably play these parts and blend their voices beautifully in love songs.

Ken Brannon is an American who falls in love with the beautiful daughter of the island King. These roles are well portrayed and sung by Betty Pearce and David Pete. The comedy scenes are quite hilarious with Captain Silver, an old sea captain, falling for Aunt Annabelle, a middle aged "maiden lady." Clowning these parts are Gaylord DuPont and Lois Beers.

Sylvia Anderson and Tom Voorhies surely can "Charleston" at King Zog's feast. They play the parts of Joanne and Dick.

The "veddy British-accented," sarong garbed King Zog is a good comedy played by Leonard Elliott.

We know you'll remember "Coral Island" for many long years to come.

MARCH OF DIMES CONTEST NETS $285.97

John Jackson, the Cochranton Consolidated High School senior class, and the March of Dimes were the winners in the three-and-a-half-hour basketball foul shooting contest.

Of these three the March of Dimes was the only one that made out in hard cold cash—a whopping $285.97 poured into the campaign for funds to fight polio.

This contest was one of the most spectacular school efforts reported in this or previous March of Dimes campaigns. The juniors and seniors each contributing $71.25 gave more this year than the entire school did last year.

The contest started at the beginning of activities period and continued till 12:30 P.M. Cheer leaders for each class kept the gym in a turmoil, equalling the din at a basketball game.

At the start of the contest each junior-senior high school grade was allotted a number of foul-shooting tries on the basis of the amount of money it turned in for the polio fund. All members of each class participated in the original throws, then, the three winning classes were allowed to pick one representative each for the finals.

Eighth graders named Gary Buzza; Freshmen named Fred Wagner, and Seniors elected John Jackson as their competitors for the finals. Fred made four out of five shots defeating Gary who made three of five. Fred's accuracy dropped off to one of five, while John dropped in four out of five.

The contest was sponsored by the staff of the Cardinal Capers with the faculty advisors of the newspaper Mr. Jones and Mr. Bartkowski taking charge. Congratulations on a job well done!
